RECOMMENDATION FOR DISPOSITION

SYNOPSIS: This matter is before this administrative tribunal as a result of a timely protest by XXXXX (hereinafter referred to as the "Taxpayer") to a Notice of Deficiency (hereinafter referred to as the "Notice") issued to her on July 22, 1994. The basis of the Notice is the Illinois Department of Revenue's (hereinafter referred to as the "Department") determination that she failed to file an Illinois income tax return for the year ending 1992 (hereinafter referred to as the "Tax Year"). The Notice assessed tax, various penalties and interest for income earned that year.

The taxpayer's protest was filed on her behalf by the XXXXX, the taxpayer's investment manager and tax preparer. Prior to the hearing on the matter, a XXXXX representative contacted me and delivered an affidavit setting forth relevant facts in this matter.

Based upon this information, I recommend that the deficiency assessed herein be cancelled.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

1. The Department's prima facie case, inclusive of all jurisdictional elements, is established by the Notice of Deficiency which indicates that for the year ending December 31, 1992, taxpayer had an adjusted gross income of $9,758 with a net income of $8,758. Dept. Ex. No. 1

2. Taxpayer failed to file an Illinois income tax return for the tax year. Dept. Ex. No. 1

3. Taxpayer's Federal income tax return for the tax year was filed from Chicago by the XXXXX as her investment manager and tax preparer. Taxpayer's Protest; Affidavit

4. Taxpayer was a resident of Spain until moving to Arkansas in 1993; taxpayer derived no income from Illinois sources. Affidavit
Conclusions of Law:

The Illinois Income Tax Act, 35 ILCS 5/101 et seq. provides, inter alia, that a taxpayer shall file an Illinois income tax return if he is a resident of Illinois for all or part of the tax year or if he receives income derived from Illinois. 35 ILCS 5/301, 5/302, 5/303. In this case, taxpayer was neither a resident of Illinois for any part of the tax year, nor did she receive any income earned in Illinois. Taxpayer's investment manager and tax preparer is located in Illinois and has the duty of filing necessary income tax returns on taxpayer's behalf. This, however, does not create a duty on taxpayer to file an Illinois income tax return.

Therefore, for the reasons stated above, it is my recommendation that the Notice of Deficiency in this cause be cancelled.
